

SECRETS d'HISTOIRE

TUESDAYS AT 6:40PM
TV5MONDE

SECRETS d'HISTOIRE

TUESDAYS AT 6:40PM – STARTING 30TH OCTOBER – 7 BRAND NEW EPISODES ST

Joséphine de Beauharnais, Nefertiti, Mary Queen of Scots, Lucretia Borgia... Revered or reviled, from poor or rich beginnings, they were icons of their era and their destinies were to be very far from ordinary.

From Ancient Egypt to the French Revolution, via the Renaissance era: we take a thrilling and fascinating trip through time to really discover these women who made their mark on history.

JOSÉPHINE, Napoleon's greatest love 30th Oct

The incredible story of Josephine, Napoleon's first wife, the one he truly loved, whom he crowned Empress then rejected. All his life, he would keep strong ties with her; he could never really let his Josephine go...

A APPRENDRE
LE FRANÇAIS
AVEC TV5MONDE

→ Learn French with the story of the life of Napoléon Bonaparte!

Trailer

Images

Paris times (GMT+1)

TV5MONDE

LUCRETIA BORGIA, a woman in the Vatican 6th November

Most often described as a monster of perversion and lust, Lucretia Borgia was however, for half of her life, known as the most radiant and beautiful Duchess of Ferrara in the north of Italy.

BLANCHE DE CASTILLE, a Queen mother of character 13th November

A very pious regent, obsessed above all with the eternal salvation of her son, King Louis IX, who became known as Saint Louis. Above all she was a woman with an outstanding personality, and she dominated the thirteenth century by her character and courage.

MADAME ROYALE, the orphan of the revolution 20th November

Daughter of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette, shaped and marked by the French Revolution, Marie-Thérèse of France spent more than forty years in exile and her life and destiny were marked by incredible highs and terrible lows...

MARY STUART, Queen of France and Scotland 27th November

Part of the Medici family, notorious in their time, Marie de Medici experienced luxury, power, humiliation and destitution. What was her true relationship with King Henry IV, who humiliated her with many mistresses and bastards? Did she play a role in his murder?

NÉFERTITI, the mysterious Queen of Egypt 4th December

"Sublime Nefertiti, the most beautiful among the beautiful" as she was known more than 3500 years ago, when she reigned over Egypt with Akhenaton, one of the last pharaohs of the 18th dynasty. We head to the pyramids to unravel the mysteries of Nefertiti.

MARIE STUART, Queen of France and Scotland 11th December

To Scotland we go, to what remains of Linlithgow Palace, where Mary Stuart was born in 1542, shortly before the death of her father, King James V. Thus begins the dark and tragic destiny of the monarch who will become Queen of France and Scotland ...

europe.tv5monde.com

© SEP